

VCI GLOBAL LIMITED
(NASDAQ: VCIG)

URGENT NOTICE: BEWARE OF CEO IMPERSONATION FRAUD

We have recently become aware of several incidents where unauthorized individuals are impersonating our company directors and officers, particularly our CEO. These imposters are sending text messages and voice messages to potential clients and investors, soliciting business deals.

Please be advised that our company follows strict protocols for all business transactions. We wish to inform all our clients, investors, and partners that:

- All legitimate business deals are finalized ONLY through official company channels
- Our executives never request funds or sensitive information via text messages
- We use only official company email addresses ending in @v-capital.co
- All formal agreements require proper documentation and signatures
- We never request urgent wire transfers or payments through unusual channels

If you have been contacted by someone claiming to represent our company in a manner that seems suspicious, please verify their identity by emailing our legal department directly at zexi.lim@v-capital.co and jiayi.foo@v-capital.co.

We take these impersonation attempts very seriously and are working with relevant authorities to address this issue. Thank you for your vigilance and continued trust in our company.
